SUMMER :-: COMFORT

We are preparing to thoroughly introduce to the people of our city the great advantage of a gasolene stove. For ten years or more they have been a source of comfort to the people East and West, and to once see them in use we know will convince you of their great blessing to the household. Just let us see: A dinner can be cooked by the mistress in a white dress and with the least possible labor. There is neither coal, wood nor kindling, smoke nor soot. Best of all there is no dust nor ashes. With a vapor stove the kitchen becomes one of cleanness, coolest and most delightful rooms in the house. No danger, no trouble to start burner. Space forbids further details of its qualities. Call and see it in operation. Can be found only at our store.

AND FINALLY, BRETHREN

THE CLOSING SCENES IN AN EVENTFUL HISTORY.

Final Chapter in the Book of Chronicles Relating the Two Years' Work of the Administration.

The last chapter in municipal doings in Asheville up to date is printed today. The story of the official acts of the city's lawmakers is always interesting, and the recounting of deeds of an administration such as the city has had for two years past is especially so. The story goes:

At the meeting on March 4, 1892, the city council was directed to retain $1,858.48 from the amount due Gen. P. M. B. Young, until the overpay matter was settled.

On March 7 Mayor Blanton laid down the rule that there should be no more smoking during sessions of the Joint Board from that time on. This has generally been observed.

It was decided at the meeting on March 11 that damages arising from street widening should be paid out of the general fund.

In the March 18 meeting it transpired that Contractor Oates had been paid in full for grading streets which had never been accepted by the street committee. At the same meeting the Board of Health ordinance passed final reading.

"Where Is the Dot Railway Now?"

On March 22, after a great deal of talk, the Asheville and Biltmore railway company was given permission to come to the square over Valley, Spycamore and Market streets. The road has never come, however.

The meeting of March 25 heard an opinion from City Attorney Cobb to the effect that damages incurred by the widening of the streets should be paid out of the improvement fund. The Aldermen on this day elected Dr. H. Longstreet Taylor, L. B. McBrayer, M. H. Fletcher and J. A. Burroughs a Board of Health.

On the first day of April the opinion of the city attorney that damages should be paid out of the improvement fund was disregarded, and a motion that they should be paid out of the general fund was adopted by a vote of 12 to 10 in the majority. At the meeting on April 4, however, a resolution was passed that the damages should be paid out of the improvement fund. The men were then in the majority. On this same date, under the genial influence of Col. Jas. G. Martin, the Asheville and Biltmore Railway company was given permission to pave between its rails with granite. Mr. Starnes made a touching speech, in which he called attention to the fact that a young man had lost his coat on a barbed wire in the city, and an ordinance was adopted calling them (the wires) down if they were still in the city. The chief of police was instructed to require dealers in newspapers and cigars to keep their stores closed on their doors closed on Sunday. Very little attention has been paid to this.

A Water Supply.

The report of the committee on the improvement of the water supply was read on April 15, and the present plan outlined.

At the suggestion of Mr. Starnes at the meeting on April 27 the West Asheville and Sulphur Springs Railway company was given the right to come to Patton avenue by way of Phillips and Bailey streets.

Along about this time there was a fruitless discussion about Bee Tree as a source of water supply.

On the 6th of May the Board of Aldermen decided that Scratch Ankle must go, and the Aldermen decided that they would excise Bee Tree with Brother Hunt. Nobody can now be found who saw Scratch Ankle go. THE CRITIC printed a column account of the Bee Tree pilgrimage, which was very interesting.

At the meeting of May 13 it developed that the city surveyors had called the routine days and by vote they were called in. In the same meeting it was resolved that the next street to be paved should be Haywood street from Patton avenue to Spring street. It was also decided that the Asheville street railway should be paved from the city to the South Main street for the sake of getting into Valley.

On May 20, on motion of Mr. Starnes, "two of the city health inspectors" were instructed to go to the city water works every three months and examine the Swannanoa and its tributaries and make a report with a view to keeping even the slightest impurity out of the water.

Four Bee Tree.

The Bee Tree scheme was lost by a vote of 10 to 1 on the 13d of May, Advisor Hunt proving faithful to the last.

May 26—Advisor Summey drifted out of the Joint Board and left it without a quorum. In the course of an hour, Col. Martin called the Board's attention to the fact, and the meeting dissolved, not knowing what that it had done was with quorum and what was not.

On June 3, J. M. Campbell called the Board's attention to the impossible condition of East street which had been accepted some time before. On motion of Mr. Starnes an ordinance declaring that iron spikes on window sills to keep loaves away was unlawful, was adopted. A sanitary inspector, superintendent of water works and 10 policemen were elected at this meeting.

At the June 10th meeting E. Baird was elected Alderman in the place of Mr. Brewer. Question gave as reason for electing Mr. Baird, the fact that "he had nothing else to do."

On June 17, George S. Powell was elected fire chief and L. P. McCloud assistant chief, by the Aldermen. This was the end of a long wrangle on the subject.

Mayor Blanton resigned his $250 New York trip bill and made an explanation that was not satisfactory.

On June 24 the fight with the Asheville Street Railway company about the paving of Patton avenue began. Mayor Blanton announced that he would do the record for $1,000, his $250 year and that the Board could not reduce his salary during his term of office.

Dismissing a Porttetter.

There was a long discussion on July 1 on the right of the Board to declare a forfeiture of the charter of the Asheville Street Railway company. Advisor Summey resigned. R. R. Rawls offered a 10 foot alley on the north side of the market house for a sanitary report. This is thought this too steep. The committee on the Mayor's New York trip bill was not ready to report.

On the 5th of July Mr. Starnes declared "we are working like a lot of children." Nobody disputed the impeachment.

The meeting of July 8 was the noisiest ever held by the Joint Board. Everybody talked, and little was done, except to notify the street railway company to pave between its rails (the old chestnut) or have its charter forfeited.

On the 15th of July Col. Martin, of the railway company, told the Board, just for fun, that he was ready to begin paving between the rails.

At the meeting of July 29 Mr. Starnes made a vigorous kick on the general dilatoriness with which the street paving was being done. The chief of police was instructed to remove the barbed wire from a handrail at the postoffice—but he didn't do it.

At the meeting of July 29 Mr. Starnes announced that he was ready to pave between the rails of his company's track.

About this time it developed that no right of way had been secured for the new pipe line. The city found it very expensive picking up this dropped stick.

Oh, These Snowbirds!

On August 12 the contract of the People's Light, Heat and Power company was extended two years, by the Aldermen, by the following vote:

Waddell, Leonard, Baird, Blanton, 5.
Gudger, Starnes, McDowell, 6.

On this same date the Patton avenue railway track was torn up. A few days after it was rumored that warrants had been issued for the mayor and members of the two Boards, for tearing up the track, which caused much alarm in certain quarters.

At a meeting on August 26 Alderman Waddell said that the extension of the light contract would bring $150,000, but that $400 of it be allowed.

On August 29 the company asked for an injunction restraining the city from interfering with the relaying of the Patton Street Railway.

On September 3 the city answered the complaint of the company.

Mayor Blanton on September 2 presented an itemized account of his expenses on his New York trip. Mr. Scott, of the bill committee, recommended that $400 of it be allowed.

On September 11 the city attorney was instructed to request the attorney general to declare a forfeiture of the charter of the Asheville Street Railway company.

During this time, culminating on September 16 there was a great deal of talk on the delay in paving. The ghost of unfinished East street came up again on this date.

Advisor Scott resigned on September 22. On the 23d Capt. Natt Atkinson resigned and Robert L. Coleman was put in entire charge of the paving work. Mr. Worsley was given permission by the Aldermen to erect a fence around his property on the sidewalk.

At the meeting on October 3 Mr. Waddell offered a resolution, which was adopted, that sidewalks should be put down first on streets where property owners did not claim damage.

So Much Talk!

On the 7th of October Advisor Miller was sworn in and the Board talked about 17,000 words about the 18-inch-on-the-outside-of-the-rail paving clause.

On October 14 a resolution was adopted instructing the contractors to begin paving Patton avenue on the following Monday, the 17th. At the same meeting Mr. Starnes announced that the paving on South Main street would be done on account of the 18-inch ditch on each side of the rail.

October 21 was the day on which the announcement was made that the brick tank had been put on Patton avenue was not begun, and a resolution was adopted that the street force should take up 800 feet of the car track at a time and allow the paving to proceed.

On November 2 came out the great secret of the delay in the paving—the pitch tank had not arrived.

On the 4th a resolution was adopted to the effect that the right of the Asheville Street Railway company to run its cars in the city had been forfeited. Between that time and the 14th the company went into the hands of a receiver, and the cars were not run.

W. B. Gwyn suggested, on the 25th of November, that the idea of paving Patton avenue be given up for the winter and a 20 foot plank way be put down instead.

December 2 Mr. Waddell announced that his voice, like Pontiac's of old, was for peace. At the same time the city adopted a resolution that the city should do the paving outside of the rails hereafter. Messrs. Gudger and Cummings voted against it.

Ten miles, that is, a part of it, was ordered abolished on December 16.

The Lawyers In It.

It developed, at the December 22d meeting, that $1,500 had been paid to the lawyers for services in the street railway fight. At the January meeting, Alderman Starnes' bulldog ordinance, requiring all bulldogs to be muzzled, was adopted.

At the first meeting in 1893, January 6, a bill of $129 for printing the record in the street railway cases, came in from Thos. S. Kennan, clerk of the Supreme court.

On the 13th of January the Aldermen instructed the chief of police to enforce (Continued on fourth page.)

AMONG GREAT GAMBLERS

INTENSE EXCITEMENT IN THE CHICAGO WHEAT PIT.

May Wheat Threatens to Go to a Dollar a Bushel—Plunger Partridge Still Rides on the Crest of the Wave.

CHICAGO, April 12.—The threat of a dollar a bushel for May wheat seemed about to be realized today. Amid intense excitement the market suddenly shot up over 3 cents on top of the recent advance of nearly 12 cents. At 90 cents, however, there was a sudden drop of 6 cents followed by a rapid rebound of 3 cents.

The whole trade seemed to think that the fate of the great plunger Edward Partridge hung in the balance, and a feeling of nervousness and anxiety was widespread. He covered his enormous short sales heavily yesterday and the opening today found every one with whom he had dealings calling on him margins away beyond the market. His position was supposed to be weakened by the advances in July, but there was an idea that he was short on July in addition to his short May. He was on the floor in person today and notwithstanding the force of his enemies seemed to be more himself than on yesterday. He sold July yesterday around 77 and today was taking it back at a cent or more of profit while apparently holding his grim death to his big dealing.

AT THE LYCEUM.

Maj. Bingham's Interesting Address—Last Evening.

Maj. Robert Bingham addressed the Lyceum society last evening on some things seen in a European tour, not put down in guide books, by Americans who go abroad purposely to see.

The speaker narrated the experiences of the jaunt in every day language that brought the scenes and incidents clearly before his audience. His talk was extremely interesting and instructive.

The story was full of entertaining bits of information concerning the people of the continent, the marvelous productions of their highly developed artistic instinct, glimpses of their home life from the berber drinking families of Genoa, the swarming beggars of Italy and its sun shine of high art in the galleries of the Vatican; the sharp contrast between medieval and modern times depicted along the vineyard terraces of the historic valley of the Rhine; the ruins of the castles of the robber barons, the luxuriance of the rose gardens of Dresden; the inconceivable grandeur of the snow-capped Alps; and the intelligently bold and perfectly maintained good roads.

The description was graphic of the minor details of the great cathedrals, St. Peter's and its sacred relics, the statues of Milan, the thrilling music of St. James, and the mausoleums of St. Paul's.

Dysan, Dysart, and McDowell county, with the tombs of the illustrious dead of the English speaking race.

The speaker was well told and the audience voted the speaker their thanks and congratulations.

TAR REEL PLACE HUNTERS.

Many of Them Have Left Wash- ington Discouraged.

CHARLOTTE, April 12.—[Special.]—The Observer's Washington correspondence says:

Most of the applicants for big places are gone. Many of them are discouraged, others taking or agreeing to take smaller places than they had at first applied for. The crowd on hand want the Western House, in the course of their wanderings they came upon Baby Ruth eating a big bowl of bread and milk in the dining room. I. P. Kerr, of Asheville, N. C., was enraptured at the sight and had to be restrained by Hon. Pat Walsh from chucking the little maiden under the chin. Mr. Kerr, however, was led away before any damage was done.

Charged With Murder.

LAURENS, S. C., April 12.—W. T. Jenkins, pastor of the African Presbyterian church, an ex-principal of the negro graded school here, has been arrested charged with the murder of his illegitimate child. His wife, Marcella Jennings, a young negro, named Clara Bullock and her father Elisha Bullock have also been arrested for complicity in the alleged crime.

The Delaney-Oliver Outrage.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 12.—Mob violence was feared at Morgantown yesterday and the jail was strongly guarded to prevent the assassins of Mrs. Henry Delaney, nee Oliver, from being taken out and lynched by infuriated citizens. Lewis Land, who made a confession, has been taken to Henderson for safety. Albert Carter is still at large.

Forty Earthquake Shocks.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 12.—Since last Thursday there have been between forty and fifty earthquake shocks in the Pico canyon, near New Hall, in the San Fernando mountains and in the center of the oil region. Last Tuesday a severe earthquake was felt all over Southern California.

The "Imprimatur" Editor.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Josephus Daniels, of Raleigh, N. C., has been selected by Secretary Hoke Smith as appointment clerk of the interior department, vice A. C. Towner resigned.

The speaker narrated the experiences of the jaunt in every day language that brought the scenes and incidents clearly before his audience. His talk was extremely interesting and instructive.

The story was full of entertaining bits of information concerning the people of the continent, the marvelous productions of their highly developed artistic instinct, glimpses of their home life from the berber drinking families of Genoa, the swarming beggars of Italy and its sun shine of high art in the galleries of the Vatican; the sharp contrast between medieval and modern times depicted along the vineyard terraces of the historic valley of the Rhine; the ruins of the castles of the robber barons, the luxuriance of the rose gardens of Dresden; the inconceivable grandeur of the snow-capped Alps; and the intelligently bold and perfectly maintained good roads.

The description was graphic of the minor details of the great cathedrals, St. Peter's and its sacred relics, the statues of Milan, the thrilling music of St. James, and the mausoleums of St. Paul's.
